Notes:

*Supplementary Employment (Home Office definition) - an additional job in the same profession and at the same professional level as the work for which your Certificate of Sponsorship was assigned; and
No more than 20 hours per week; and
Outside of the normal working hours for which your Certificate of Sponsorship was assigned.
In addition, you must continue to work for your sponsor in the job recorded on your Certificate of Sponsorship.

Professional Sportsperson (Home Office) - A "Professional Sportsperson", is someone, whether paid or unpaid, who :

1. is providing services as a sportsperson, playing or coaching in any capacity, at a professional or semi-professional level of sport; or
2. being a person who currently derives, who has in the past derived or who the Secretary of state has reason to believe is seeking in the future to derive, a living from playing or coaching, is providing services as a sportsperson or coach at any level of sport, unless they are doing so as an "Amateur" in a charity game.

Amateur Sportsperson (Home Office)- An "Amateur" is a person who engages in a sport or creative activity solely for personal enjoyment and who is not seeking to derive a living* from the activity. This also includes a person playing or coaching in a charity game.

Seeking to derive a Living- A person may be considered to be seeking to derive a living or has sought to derive a living if the individual has played cricket above U17 for a Professional Outfit (Country/ Country Academy/ State/ Province/ Territory level (paid or unpaid) in any country.

Reasonable expenses & use of Agents - The Home Office have confirmed that a) the payment of a player's airfare or accommodation and/or b) the use of an agent to promote the availability of players, is likely to increase the prospect of the Home Office considering the player to be a "professional" and, as a consequence, the risk of that player being deemed ineligible to participate in accredited ECB Leagues.
